Welcome to the Miami Web Fest 2014; your gateway to the hottest New Independent Media! This year's festival features web series from Miami, Los Angeles, New York, and throughout the US, as well as throughout the world, including Singapore, Australia, France, Italia, Spain, the UK and more! The Red Carpet Awards Ceremony will celebrate creative excellence in over 30 categories!

WHY "WEB SERIES"?

For the uninitiated, the "web series" is the new short film, designed to allow filmmakers to create the maximum impact in a reduced amount of programming time, supported by social media and viewable on mobile devices. Web series have quickly evolved in just a few years, from Youtube-based trend to a mainstream format used by companies like Netflix, who now produce their own content, such as "Orange is the New Black" and "House of Cards".

WHY WAS MIAMI WEB FEST CREATED?

Miami Web Fest is designed to create a unique experience for both the content creator and audiences eager for new and exciting entertainment options! What makes this festival unique is that we combine the traditional film festival concept (Screenings, Panels, and Red Carpet Award Ceremony) with the 'ScreenBash' concept, in which video content from the festival is played on large screens during exciting dance parties at the hottest clubs in the city! The inevitable result is an explosion of discovery that could only happen in the uniquely multicultural, artistic and 'hip' environment of Miami.

Miami Web Fest has something for everyone! Action, Drama, Sci-Fi, Comedy, you name it! We hope you enjoy the festival as much as we enjoy bringing it to you.

Sincerely,

Bryan Thompson

WHILE WAITING FOR GODOT

Our show is a cinematic adaptation (approved by the Beckett Estate) based on our new translation of Samuel Beckett's original French manuscript, 'En Attendant Godot' (1948, 'Waiting for Godot'), giving English speakers a chance for the first time to experience the raw play (pre-censorship and theatrical adaptation) as Samuel Beckett originally intended.

Beckett's surreal and minimalistic story explores themes from the desperation of poverty to the self-isolation of existential philosophy. To accompany Beckett's iconic two "bums", we incorporate cinema verite footage of New York City (where the story is now set), documenting the recent surge in the homeless community since 2009.
